LEADERSHIP CHARACTERISTICS LIVE WITHIN EACH OF US, BUT IT IS THOSE WHO HAVE PERSISTENCE AND DRIVE WHO CREATE THE MOST POSITIVE IMPACT IN OUR COMMUNITY.

The 20 Under 40 Awards recognize a new generation of influential professionals who exemplify occupational merit, servant leadership, and exude remarkable personal qualities. This year's honorees are comprised of leaders under the age of 40 who have persevered and achieved even at times when everything around them indicated that success may be difficult to attain.

The 20 Under 40 program encourages the honorees to continue the investment of their time and talents in their community. Likewise, it encourages and inspires their contemporaries and younger generations to do the same. In short, the 20 Under 40 program is building the leadership infrastructure that will ensure San Angelo remain vibrant, engaged, and forward-thinking well into the distant future.

We hope you enjoy learning about what motivates, inspires, and drives these 20 exemplary professionals, and their influential leadership roles in our community.

The San Angelo Chamber of Commerce is proud to present...
THIS YEAR'S 20 UNDER 40 HONOREES

BETHANY BRADLEY

---

Bethany is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker with roots in San Angelo, obtaining her bachelor's in social work at Angelo State University followed by her Master of Social Work with a cohort program with Angelo State and University Texas Arlington. Bethany has been employed at Shannon Medical for the past four and half years working with a focus on helping those with mental health and substance abuse concerns, starting as the emergency room social worker, and then psychiatric team lead, to her current role as outpatient behavioral health practice manager. Bethany has worked hard to assist in developing the way psychiatric processing is done within this setting and working towards access to care. Bethany also works as an independent therapist providing services through Headway, and adjunct instructor with Howard teaching Introduction to Social Work. Bethany is also invested in furthering her own education by currently going back to school to get her master's in legal studies with Texas A&M with a focus on Healthcare Law Policy and Management. Bethany has a passion of bettering access to mental health care within the West Texas area and serves as an advocate for this population. Bethany is also a member of the Concho Valley Homeless Planning Coalition and Concho Valley Suicide Prevention Coalition.

SIERRA BRADY

Sierra Brady is a proud native of San Angelo Texas and has called this beloved community her home for 15 years. She is a co-owner of FroYo & Sweets Downtown and a manager of her family's business, Old Central Firehouse Pizzeria & Taproom. Growing up in a family of self-made entrepreneurs, Sierra always dreamed of following in her parent's footsteps and becoming a successful business owner. In 2018, Sierra's family purchased an old fire station in downtown San Angelo and renovated it to become Old Central Firehouse Pizzeria & Taproom. The experience, knowledge, and dedication Sierra learned from running her family's restaurant prepared Sierra and her sister, Dakota, to open FroYo & Sweets Downtown, a frozen yogurt and candy shop. Sierra is passionate about San Angelo, her people, and the tight-knit community that the city brings. Community service is a staple of Sierra's family and always will be. Sierra can be seen frequently serving as she currently sits on the Tom Green County Child Services Board and is an active member of the San Angelo Chamber of Commerce, Historic Downtown, San Angelo, and a recent graduate of Leadership San Angelo's 40th class. Sierra is married to her husband, Jalen Brady, and has two beautiful children whom she loves dearly. As a mother, wife, volunteer, and small business owner, her time is spent wearing many different hats, sometimes a few at the same time. However, her priority is to her family, and you will usually find a kid or two not too far behind her.

HANNA CAIN

Hanna Cain is a native of San Angelo, TX. Hanna received her Bachelor of Science in Psychology and played soccer at Angelo State University (Ram 'Em!). Finding a love working with children, she became a Registered Behavior Technician where she worked with children diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder for 4 years before pursuing her Masters in Special Education at the University of Texas A&M and gaining her supervision hours to become a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst. Passionate about the quality of care and treatment these kids deserve and recognizing the need for a locally-owned autism clinic in the Concho Valley, Hanna opened up her own clinic in 2019. In her free time, Hanna loves to spend time with her husband and 2 boys.

JAVIER CRUZ JR.

Javier Cruz Jr. is a personal injury attorney at The Law Offices of Rick DeHoyos, known for his unwavering commitment to advocating for individuals victimized by negligence. Born and raised in Houston, Texas, primarily in the Second Ward, Javier's journey reflects the values of hard work and perseverance instilled in him by his family. Javier's academic path culminated in May 2022 when he earned his Law Degree from St. Mary's University. He passed the Uniform Bar Exam (UBE) in October 2022, making him the first attorney in his family. Javier's understanding of the American dream is deeply personal. He recognizes the sacrifices his family made and is driven by a desire to make a difference in the lives of others. He actively engages in community service, teaching civics to individuals preparing for the naturalization process through the Adult Literacy Council. In addition to his educational efforts, Javier serves on the Board of the Boys and Girls Club of the Concho Valley, the Board of the AMAS Alumni Association, and the Parks and Recreation Foundation. Javier's contributions are not his alone as he credits his achievements to the Lord and the support of his mentors, family, friends, and girlfriend, acknowledging that his success is not solely his own. Guided by faith and purpose, he continues to live by the motto of his mentor, "Being a leader starts with never saying no."

BRILYN DANIELS

Brilyn graduated from Central High School in 2015 and earned both a BBA in Management and an MBA in Marketing from Angelo State University. For the past five years, Brilyn has worked at West Texas Rehabilitation Center (WTRC), initially in Family Support Services, and now as the Donor Relations Coordinator. In this role, Brilyn helps raise funds through more than 40 events each year, supporting WTRC's mission to provide rehabilitative and hospice care to the Concho Valley, regardless of financial circumstances. In addition to professional responsibilities, Brilyn is deeply committed to community service. In 2022, Brilyn joined the Junior League of San Angelo, volunteering with nonprofits like the Boy's Ranch and Concho Valley Paws. As the "P.A.C.K" committee chair, Brilyn works to provide hygiene products to students in need. In 2023, Brilyn became a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for children in foster care, ensuring their needs are represented in court proceedings. In 2024, Brilyn joined the Young Professionals of San Angelo, connecting with a network of peers dedicated to making a positive impact. Active at Christian Fellowship Baptist Church, Brilyn leads the Audio/Visual ministry and serves as a youth Sunday school leader. Through these various roles and commitments, Brilyn has consistently demonstrated a passion for service and community empowerment. Looking toward the future, Brilyn is excited to continue making a meaningful difference and embracing new opportunities to grow and serve.

ASHLEY HARPER

---

Ashley Harper is the Teacher Education Pathways Coordinator at Howard College. After earning a bachelor's degree in education from Texas A&M University, she moved to San Angelo, Texas, with her husband. Originally from The Woodlands, Ashley embraced the change and began teaching in San Angelo ISD, where she worked for four years. During this time, she and her husband became active members of their church, volunteering in children's and youth Sunday schools. In 2016, Ashley joined the Junior League of San Angelo (JLSA) to further serve her community. Over her eight years with JLSA, she held multiple committee chair positions and served on the board of directors for three years. After a break from teaching to focus on raising her two sons, Ashley returned to education at Wall ISD. In 2021, she transitioned into higher education, a long-time dream, by joining Howard College and working on the Texas 2-Step Program partnership, which helps teacher's aides achieve their goals in education. She also began pursuing a master's degree in higher education at Angelo State University. Ashley's role at Howard College has allowed her to share her passion for education and help others discover their own paths in the field.

DANIEL HEARE

---

Daniel is the Co-Owner of Heare Services, LLC. Daniel began his welding business (formerly Heare's Welding) nearly 15 years ago, during his senior year of high school. In 2020, Daniel turned his "part-time side hustle" into his full-time career. Since then, Daniel has grown from a one-man operation to an 8 person crew. He has grown from a small shop with a leaky roof to a 4 building complex. He has grown from small fence and gate repairs to building artistically designed ornamental ironworks, steel buildings, oilfield equipment, and large bridge cranes. He has also expanded his business to include projects in Midland/Odessa and the DFW area. Daniel loves his work, his employees, and his home. He believes that with every new employee, every client, and every completed project, he is making San Angelo a little more beautiful and a lot stronger. Daniel holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Angelo State University and a Masters in Biomedical Sciences from Texas A&M University. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Home Builder's Association, and is an active member of San Angelo First Assembly. Above all, Daniel is loving and gracious father to his sons, Archer and Simon.

HANNAH HEARE

Hannah Heare was born and raised in San Angelo, Tx. She graduated from Angelo State University in 2015 and received a Bachelor of Arts in English. Hannah is the Co-Owner of Heare Services, LLC alongside her husband, Daniel Heare. Heare Services is a welding and construction company that focuses on creating ornamental ironworks, metal structures, and industrial oilfield equipment. Additionally, Hannah invests in real estate as a "house flipper". Hannah believes that by flipping homes in San Angelo, she is actively contributing to the revitalization of her community while preserving its rich culture. Through her work, she is helping to improve neighborhoods, increase property values, and create a more vibrant and attractive living environment for families in the area. Hannah is also a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for the Children's Advocacy Center of Greater West Texas, a member of Junior League of San Angelo, a graduate of the 40th class of Leadership San Angelo, the Leadership San Angelo Alumni Association Board Secretary, and a member of the La Esperanza Clinic Board of Directors. Hannah is deeply grateful for her parents, Trudy and Jeffrey Bozeman, her husband Daniel, her sons- Archer and Simon, her extended family and her friends for their unwavering support, their logistical help in managing the chaos of her busy life, and their faithful guidance and grace.

LEA JACKSON

---

Lea Jackson is a Senior Financial Analyst at Johnson & Johnson MedTech, where she also serves as the site lead for the Women's Leadership & Inclusion employee resource group. Lea champions initiatives that empower women and foster a diverse workplace culture. Though she has only called San Angelo home for two years, Lea has quickly woven herself into the fabric of the community. Her commitment to uplifting women is evident in her roles as Treasurer for Texas Business Women, and as an active member of The Junior League of San Angelo, as well as the Chamber of Commerce Young Professionals Network. Through these organizations, she dedicates her time and talents to initiatives that promote female empowerment and professional growth. Lea earned a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from the University of Alaska, graduating with Leadership Honors and serving as an executive board member of her sorority, ASA. She later achieved summa cum laude honors while completing a Master of Education at Eastern Washington University. A proud Marine Corps Veteran, she has had the privilege of living around the globe, immersing herself in diverse cultural experiences with her partner, Zach, which inform her work and advocacy. Lea attributes her success to the unwavering support of her family, especially the uplifting women who have inspired her journey. Significant losses have profoundly shaped her outlook on life, instilling resilience and a deeper appreciation for the strength found in community. With a heart for service and a vision for a more equitable future, Lea continues to make a meaningful impact in the community she cherishes.

GREG JAYNES

---

Greg Jaynes is the founder and owner of Mix It Up Media, a full-service video production company in San Angelo, Texas. Originally from Keller, Texas, Greg moved to San Angelo in 2009 to attend Angelo State University, where he earned a B.A. in Communications with a focus on TV/Radio Broadcasting. During his time at ASU, Greg discovered his passion for video storytelling and played on the Rams football team. After graduation, Greg worked as a commercial producer at KIDY FOX, where he won several ADDY awards. While there, he started a side business filming wedding videos, which eventually expanded into a full-time venture. Greg left FOX to launch Mix It Up Media, offering corporate videos, real estate tours, social media content, and non-profit brand stories. His company helps businesses expand their media presence and grow. Throughout his journey, Greg has embraced his dyslexia, using it as a creative asset. Inspired by his mother's belief that dyslexia is a "gift, not a disability," Greg has found success by thinking outside the box and helping others see the potential in their own challenges. Greg is actively involved in the community, serving on the Ram Club board, AccessAbility First board, and participating in 100 Men Who Care and the Chamber of Commerce. He is also involved in ministries at Johnson Street Church and volunteers as a camp counselor each summer. Greg credits his success to his faith, family, and the support of his community.

PAUL KEETON

Paul Keeton moved to San Angelo in 2014 after transitioning from active-duty to Reserve service in the U.S. Navy. He enrolled at Angelo State University, earning a Bachelor's in Intelligence, Security Studies, and Analysis in 2017, followed by a Master's in Homeland Security in 2018. In 2018, Paul became the Military Veterans Peer Network Coordinator at West Texas Counseling & Guidance, where he was later promoted to Director of Veteran Services. During his tenure, he expanded services to reach over 1,200 Service Members, Veterans, and Families (SMVF) annually across the Concho Valley. In 2022, Paul earned a Master of Social Work from the University of Houston and began providing treatment to the SMVF community. In 2024, he joined Tom Green County as the Specialty Court Counselor, supporting current court efforts and helping establish a Veterans Treatment Court. In the Naval Reserves, Paul was selected as a Chief Petty Officer in 2016 and has since held several Senior Enlisted Leader roles, including Command Master Chief for Littoral Combat Ship Squadron Two, where he led over 500 sailors. In 2023, Paul was promoted to Master Chief Petty Officer and now serves as the Senior Enlisted Leader for Commander Submarine Group Seven. He is a graduate of the Navy Reserve Unit Management School and the Senior Enlisted Academy. Paul is also a proud father to his daughter, Lena Pearl Keeton, a recent Kindergarten graduate from Santa Rita Elementary.

MEGAN KIRKWOOD

---

Horses have always been at the center of Megan Kirkwood's life. Before she could walk she was on a horse. Growing up horses were a part of everyday life and at the heart of every activity. Megan was a highly successful youth equestrian and judge earning recognition and awards around the state and country. Megan's parents were mentors and amazing guides to herself and others and kept Megan active and successful in 4-H and FFA. Little did Megan know that her love and knowledge of horses would one day combine with her passion for helping others. Since 2013 Megan has served as Site Director for Sonrisas Trails Therapeutic Riding. Sonrisas provides therapeutic services to those with physical, emotional, and mental disabilities utilizing horses as a means of healing. In Megan's role as Site Director she is a Path Certified instructor, volunteer coordinator, donor relations, horse caretaker all rolled into one. Recently Sonrisas has added a ropes course in which Megan is a facilitator and coordinator. Of the many roles she plays at Sonrisas working with special needs children and watching miracles happen for them and their families is her favorite. In the 14 years Megan has called the Concho Valley home she has served as a member of or on the boards of Big Brother Big Sisters, Kiwanis West, Concho Cadre, Junior League of San Angelo, Remuda Quarter Horse Association, San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo Quarter Horse show and special needs rodeo. In 2014 Megan was a graduate of Leadership San Angelo and was recognized as a Woman to Honor by the Texas Business Women of San Angelo. Of all the accomplishments Megan has gained the greatest two are her children Brazos and Sage whom she raises with her husband Wade Kirkwood.

She received her undergraduate degree from Texas A&M University in 2009 and her law degree from Texas Tech University School of Law in 2012. She is licensed to practice law in Texas and New Mexico. Tara joined Perdue Brandon Fielder Collins & Mott, LLP in 2020 and became a partner with the Firm in January of 2024. Her practice is focused on helping local governmental entities, including school districts, counties and municipalities, in the collection of governmental receivables, which constitute an important portion of their funding. In addition, she works to assist local communities with returning abandoned and vacant properties to their tax rolls, providing them with additional tax revenue and property cleanup opportunities. Tara is dedicated to fostering thriving rural communities and prioritizes building enduring relationships within the regions she represents. Prior to joining Perdue Brandon, Tara was a shareholder at a Midland, Texas firm, specializing in oil and gas title examination. Tara is a graduate of the 40th Class of Leadership San Angelo and serves as a member of the Leadership San Angelo Alumni Association. She is an active member of the Rotary Club of San Angelo, serving as the Chair of the Service Committee and as a Board member. Tara has also served as a volunteer for numerous events across the Concho Valley. In addition to her volunteer service, Tara's faith leads her to serve her community through a variety of faith-based organizations. She is a Board member for the CV Biblical Counseling Center, which provides Bible-based, Christian counseling for families and individuals throughout the Concho Valley. She is an active member of Community Hills Christian Church and believes that serving her community is not just a responsibility but a deeply rewarding aspect of living in a city that she loves so much. Tara is married to her 40th Class of Leadership San Angelo sweetheart, Trey Holmes, and is the proud daughter of Stan and Tammy Mulanax of Christoval.

JESENIA RODRIGUEZ

---

Jesenia Rodriguez is from Gorman, Texas, and moved to San Angelo in 2021 to pursue higher education. She graduated summa cum laude from Angelo State University with a BBA in Marketing. During her time at ASU, Jesenia was invited to participate in the Housley Leadership class and became a member of the business fraternity, Delta Sigma Pi. Serving in various leadership roles, Jesenia discovered her passion for empowering her peers and engaging young professionals in the San Angelo community. Now, as the Manager of Young Professionals and Chamber Events for the San Angelo Chamber of Commerce, Jesenia continues to pursue her passion for community engagement and leadership. She believes that a community is only as strong as its younger generations and works tirelessly to support events and organizations in need. In such a giving community, Jesenia is committed to giving back as much as she receives, helping to lay a foundation for future generations. Jesenia serves on the board of the Adult Literacy Council and several committees for the Boys and Girls Club of the Concho Valley and Girl Scouts, and Junior League of San Angelo. She is also involved in community initiatives like Fall Sweep, Galilee, and food drives for the ASU Ram Pantry and Concho Valley Food Bank. Her dedication to service reflects her love for the San Angelo community. Jesenia attributes her resilience and success to her boyfriend and family, especially her mother, Maria Rodriguez, who instilled these values in her from a young age. She believes that God's plan brought her to San Angelo, with a little help from her mom.
